What is this product?

Type
The Fund is an Exchange-Traded Fund ("ETF"), a sub-fund of the Umbrella Fund which is incorporated in Ireland and authorised by the Central Bank of Ireland as a limited liability Irish collective asset management vehicle with segregated liability between its sub-funds.

Term
The Fund has no maturity date. The Fund may be terminated unilaterally by the directors of the Umbrella Fund and there are circumstances in which the Fund can be terminated automatically, as further described in the prospectus.

Objectives

Investment objective:
The objective of the Fund is to provide exposure to the performance of USD denominated investment grade rated corporate bonds with a high Benchmark Spread.

Investment approach:
The Fund is a passively managed ETF.
To achieve the investment objective the Fund will seek to track the total return performance of the iBoxx USD Corporates Investment Grade Spread Select Top 50% TCA Index (the "Index"), less fees, expenses and transaction costs.
The Fund will employ sampling techniques to select securities in the Index which may include but are not limited to index weighted average duration and credit quality. The use of the sampling approach will result in the Fund holding a smaller number of securities than are in the underlying Index.
The Fund may engage in securities lending, whereby 90% of the revenues arising from securities lending will be returned to the Fund and 10% of the revenues will be retained by the securities lending agent.
The Fund may be exposed to the risk of the borrower defaulting on its obligation to return the securities at the end of the loan period and of being unable to sell the collateral provided to it if the borrower defaults.
The Fund may use derivative instruments for the purposes of managing risk, reducing costs, generating additional capital or income.
The Fund's base currency is USD.

The Index:
The Index is designed to reflect the performance of USD denominated, investment grade rated corporate bonds, while aiming to provide a yield enhancement compared to the iBoxx USD Corporates Index (the "Parent Index"), by selecting the bonds with the highest Benchmark Spread within the Parent Index. The Parent Index provides exposure to the performance of USD denominated investment grade corporate bonds. Benchmark Spread means a premium above the yield on a default-free bond with similar time to maturity (also known as the "benchmark rate"), which seeks to compensate for the additional risk associated with holding a corporate bond that is not considered default-free. It is calculated as the difference between the yield on a corporate bond and the benchmark rate (e.g. USD denominated government bonds with similar time to maturity). The securities will be rated investment grade at the time of inclusion in the Index, as determined by the index provider. Securities' principal and interest must be denominated in USD. Only securities with at least 18 months to final maturity (i.e. the time until they become due for repayment) and at least USD500mn par amount outstanding may be included in the Index. The constituents of the Index are selected every quarter when all securities in the Parent Index are grouped into 20 categories depending on a combination of a security's remaining time to maturity and its sector classification. Within their respective categories, securities are ranked based on their Benchmark Spread as determined by the index provider. The index provider selects securities that rank in the top 50% based on their Benchmark Spread within each respective category to construct the Index. The Index is market value weighted. The Index is reconstituted on a quarterly basis to screen and select eligible securities based on Benchmark Spread.
The Index rebalances monthly.
