- The Dow Jones Internet Composite Index℠ is a float-adjusted market capitalization weighted index designed to represent the largest and most actively traded stocks of U.S. companies in the Internet industry.
- To be eligible for the Dow Jones Internet Composite Index℠, a stock must be listed on the NYSE, NYSE MKT or Nasdaq stock exchange and meet the following criteria:
- Generate a majority of sales/revenues from the Internet.
- Minimum trading history of three months.
- Minimum three-month average float-adjusted market capitalization of $100 million.
- Eligible stocks are ranked first by three-month average float-adjusted market capitalization and then by three-month average share volume. A final rank is calculated based on an equally weighted average of the market cap and volume rankings.
- Companies are sorted by final rank and 40 companies are selected, consisting of 15 classified as Internet Commerce and 25 classified as Internet Services.
- The Index is weighted by float-adjusted market capitalization.
- The weight of any individual security is restricted to 10% and the aggregate weight of individual securities with weights of 4.5% or more is restricted to 45%.
- The Index is rebalanced quarterly.

This marketing communication is directed at Professional Investors only and is not for Retail Investors. Please refer to the Prospectus, the related supplement, and the KID/KIID before making any final investment decisions.

Risks

- The Fund may not achieve its investment objective and the value of shares in the Fund may fall.
- Neither First Trust Global Portfolios Management Limited ("FTGPM") nor any of its affiliates, guarantees the performance or the future returns of the Fund.
- The Fund may be subject to internet companies risk. Internet companies are subject to rapid changes in technology, worldwide competition, rapid obsolescence of products and services, loss of patent protections, cyclical market patterns, evolving industry standards, frequent new product introductions and the considerable risk of owning small capitalisation companies that have recently begun operations.
- The Fund may be subject to information technology companies risk. Information technology companies are generally subject to the following risks: rapidly changing technologies; short product life cycles; fierce competition; aggressive pricing and reduced profit margins; the loss of patent, copyright and trademark protections; cyclical market patterns; evolving industry standards; and frequent new product introductions. Information technology companies may be smaller and less experienced companies, with limited product lines, markets or financial resources and fewer experienced management or marketing personnel. Information technology company stocks, particularly those involved with the Internet, have experienced extreme price and volume fluctuations that are often unrelated to their operating performance.
- There is no assurance that the Index will continue to be calculated and published on the basis described in the Prospectus. In addition, the Fund's return may not match the return of the Index.
- See also the description of the risks applicable to the Fund in "Risk Factors" in the prospectus.

Important Information

In the United Kingdom this marketing communication is issued and approved by First Trust Global Portfolios Limited ("FTGP") whose place of business is 8 Angel Court, London, EC2R 7HJ. FTGP is authorised and regulated by the United Kingdom's Financial Conduct Authority (FRN:583261). The Fund is regulated by the Central Bank of Ireland.

In countries other than the United Kingdom, this marketing communication is issued by First Trust Global Portfolios Management Limited ("FTGPM") whose place of business is 24 Saint Stephen's Green, Dublin 2, D02 EK82. FTGPM is authorised and regulated by the Central Bank of Ireland ("CBI") (C185737). The Fund is also regulated by the CBI.

Nothing contained herein constitutes investment, legal, tax or other advice and it is not to be solely relied on in making an investment or other decision, nor does the document implicitly or explicitly recommend or suggest an investment strategy, reach conclusions in relation to an investment strategy for the reader, or provide any opinions as to the present or future value or price of any fund. It is not an invitation, offer, or solicitation to engage in any investment activity, including making an investment in the Fund, nor does the information, recommendations or opinions expressed herein constitute an offer for sale of the Fund.

The Fund is an open-ended sub-fund of the First Trust Global Funds ICAV (the "ICAV"), an open-ended Irish collective asset management vehicle which is constituted as an umbrella fund with variable capital and segregated liability between sub-funds, incorporated under the laws of Ireland with UCITS registered number C99076.

The material in this marketing communication is not comprehensive and must therefore be read in conjunction with the Fund's prospectus, the relevant supplement, and the UCITS key investor information document ("KIID") or the PRIIPS key information document ("KID") which contain material information not contained herein, including the terms of investment and information regarding investment risks and restrictions, fees and expenses and conflicts of interests. Potential investors should pay particular attention to the risk disclosures in the "Risk Factors" section of the Fund's prospectus (available in English), the relevant supplement, and KIIDs (available for each share class of each of the sub-funds of the ICAV and in one of the official languages of each of the EU Member States into which each sub-fund has been notified for marketing under the Directive 2009/65/ EC (the UCITS Directive)). No assurance can be given that the Fund's investment objective will be achieved or that the Fund will generate a positive return. Please contact FTGPM or visit www.ftglobalportfolios.com to obtain a prospectus, relevant supplement, and/or KIID/KID. Investors and potential investors can obtain a summary in English of investor rights and information on access to collective redress mechanisms in the event of litigation at the following website: https://www.ftglobalportfolios.com/Content/SUMMARY_OF_INVESTOR_RIGHTS.

The Fund is currently notified for marketing into a number of EU Member States under the UCITS Directive. The ICAV may however decide to terminate the arrangements made for the marketing of any share class of the Fund at any time using the process contained in the UCITS Directive.

Any UCITS ETF's units / shares purchased on the secondary market cannot usually be sold directly back to UCITS ETF. Investors must buy and sell units / shares on a secondary market with the assistance of an intermediary (e.g. a stockbroker) and may incur fees for doing so. In addition, investors may pay more than the current net asset value when buying units / shares and may receive less than the current net asset value when selling them.

The ICAV portfolio holdings policy is designed to be transparent, whilst being in the best interest of the Fund and protecting the confidentiality of each Fund's portfolio holdings. The full portfolio holdings for the Fund shall generally be available daily, with a one-day lag, on www.ftglobalportfolios.com. Any portfolio holdings information which may otherwise be provided on request shall be provided on a confidential basis.
